A State Surplus, With Tax on Labor, War Eagle Fair

It isn't the fashion nowadays to get more revenue for government by raising the tax rate—rather, you accomplish the same result by broadening the base to which the existing tax rate is applied.

This dodge can run into a multi-million burden for the taxpayer, as evidenced by an examination of tax legislation passed in the 1971 Arkansas General Assembly reported by Tom Jordan in the Arkansas Democrat of Oct. 11.

Arkansas' current surplus of tax money is shaping up as an astounding figure, between $75 and $80 millions, Mr. Jordan reports.

He recalls that in the 1971 legislature it was estimated that the existing sales tax base would produce an extra $1,727,494, and that the 1971 law enlarging the sales tax base to cover repair services (including labor) would produce an additional $3 million—making a total increase of $3.7 million.

But, Jordan reports, the actual revenue increase from sales tax is running at the rate of $21.5 million—or $17 million higher than expected.

Something to be proud of?

Not quite—when you remember that this huge sum was stolen from private citizens who, having paid 3 per cent sales tax when they bought shoes, were given the grim alternative of either paying an additional 3 per cent tax for shoe repairs or going barefoot.

Likewise with the most modestly-priced automobile. You pay 3 per cent sales tax when buying it new—and another 3 per cent on labor and parts every time you take it to a repair shop.

Will state government with a huge surplus offer to rebate its overtaxed ordinary citizens? Are you kidding?

That isn't how government minds work. What you pay them they keep—and come back later for whatever they missed the first time.

In Arkansas we have been reduced to the miserable state of having to support government by a tax on labor—and no apologist can spell it out any other way.

This week The Star office began to get inquiries about the annual Arts & Crafts Fall Fair at War Eagle.

Fortunately, about the time the inquiries began we were putting into print a special article on the War Eagle event, in The Star of Oct. 11. Having photographed the Fair twice in full color for this newspaper I can add a few notes.

The Fair this year will be held Friday through Sunday, Oct. 20-22.

War Eagle is situated on paved State Hy. 12. Accommodations may be reserved at either Eureka Springs or Rogers. Eureka has two famous hotels, the Crescent and Rainier Park. Rogers has many motels.

One route to War Eagle is to go up U.S. 71 to Rogers, then turn west on State 12 for a short run to War Eagle.

My favorite route, however, is the road to Eureka Springs. Drive to Mt. Ida and on to Danville, then on State 10 west to Booneville, and take State 23 north to Eureka Springs. On the way into Eureka you pass the intersection with State 12. Spending the night at Eureka you retrace a few miles south on State 23, turn west on State 12 and quickly reach War Eagle, which in Fair-time is a collection of circus tents housing the art and handicraft exhibits.

Kissinger reports:

Nixon hears briefing on Vietnam talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon arranged to get a breakfast briefing today from Henry A. Kissinger amid continued administration silence on whether his intensive negotiations made headway toward ending the Vietnam war.

Also summoned to the White House meeting was Secretary of State William P. Rogers, just returned from meeting with foreign ministers at the fall session of the United Nations.

Kissinger flew in from Paris Thursday night after four days of talks with Le Duc Tho and Xuan Thuy, in the presidential adviser's most-extended session with Hanoi's negotiators in the 19 secret meetings since the start of the Nixon administration.

The was reported heading back to Hanoi, presumably to give his version of the Paris parley to the North Vietnamese leadership.

Kissinger, accompanied by his chief assistant, Gen. Alexander M. Haig, would say nothing to newsmen as he arrived at Andrews Air Force Base. The two went directly to the White House for an initial report to Nixon.

A White House source said he knew of no immediate plans to disclose what has gone on in the negotiations. So far Nixon has said only that "the negotiations are at a sensitive stage."

Against this backdrop, Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott Thursday predicted that the United States' "warlike participation" in Vietnam will be over by Jan. 30.

The White House silence on the secret negotiations, matched by Hanoi's silence, has set off flurries of speculation that a peace deal is near at hand.

Five missing in plant explosion

AVOCA, Pa. (AP) — Five workers were unaccounted for and seven were injured today in an explosion at a dynamite plant where a similar blast last fall killed three persons, authorities said.

A company official told newsmen that four of the missing workers were in an explosive mixing building when the blast let go. He said the other man was working behind it.

Newsmen at the scene said pieces of bodies were found as far as 300 feet from a mixing house and, while firemen and rescue crews worked, a Catholic priest recited last rites over the remains.

Area hospitals said one injured man was in guarded condition and five in fair or good condition. The other man was released after treatment.

"I was looking out the window from my desk when it happened," said Joe Wysockinski, who works in a building across from the plant. "I first saw the large bright yellow and red flash and then the large mushroom-type cloud followed by a loud noise and then the explosion."

"The explosion shook all the companies in the area and shook hell out of us," Wysockinski said. The blast, at Independent Explosives Co., sent a ball of fire and black into the sky. The plant, consisting of a series of buildings, is situated in a hilly area outside this small town in Pennsylvania's anthracite region.

One hospitalized following wreck

An accident involving two vehicles occurred early today injuring Paul Gray, 28, of Hope. Gray, a driver for G & G Trucking of Hope, was parked on the shoulder of I-30 near Fulton when a tractor-trailer rig driven by Charles VanDuyan of Danville, Ill., slammed into the rear of Gray's truck, a State Police spokesman reported.

Gray's tractor-trailer rig was loaded with chickens and the impact broke the load chains loose a spokesman said, allowing the chickens to scatter over the interstate and into the ditch. The tractor driven by VanDuyan was severely damaged.

VanDuyan escaped injuries. Gray was taken to a Texarkana hospital where he is listed in satisfactory condition.

Muskie charges espionage, puts blame on Republicans

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Edmund S. Muskie says his campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination was riddled with an "astounding series" of incidents of apparent espionage and sabotage.

Though sidestepping accusing specific individuals, the Maine Democrat and his staff suggested Thursday that Republicans were to blame.

Muskie said he has not ruled out the possibility of filing suit against the Committee for the Re-election of the President and certain White House officials linked in published reports of alleged sabotage.

The occurrences labeled suspicious by the Muskie staff peaked during the period the senator was considered the frontrunner for the nomination subsequently won by Sen. George McGovern.

The incidents dropped off when Muskie's campaign faltered.

The list released by the Muskie staff included possible cases of wiretapping, stolen documents, forged campaign literature, false news releases, and bogus telephone calls arousing voters in the middle of the night.

The list was prefaced with the admonition that the incidents had not been thoroughly investigated and were "not intended at this time as charges against any individual or group."

John T. McEvoy, the senator's administrative assistant, said the incidents "were not undertaken in the spirit of fun."

They were undertaken to destroy a candidate."

Muskie said, "Over the past 18 months, there have been a number of inexplicable incidents that seem to us to be inevitably involved with somebody's sabotage efforts."

In a related development, Chairman Wright Patman was stymied in efforts to conduct House Banking Committee hearings on financial aspects of the investigation of the break-in and alleged bugging of Democratic headquarters.

Marching to the tune...

By REBECCA LAZENBY
of The Star Staff

The shrill sound of a drum major's whistle fills the early morning air and the first notes of a march are heard.

Hope High School's marching band, under the direction of Gary Wells, gets in an early morning practice session at the beginning of each school day. Members of the band don't seem to mind the dew covered grass or the chill in the early morning air.

Wells, a nervous dynamo, watches the performance with a critical eye; He paces the sidelines shouting instructions, yells a lot, and occasionally marches a few steps to show how it's supposed to be done.

Actually, Wells is a soft-spoken young man who doesn't look much older than some of his students. He began his second year as band director at Hope High School this year.

Wells came to Hope from Greenville, Tex., where he served as band director for a short time and has had five years experience as a band director.

"I try to help develop better individual players in my band. I really like working with small groups and also with a full band. My main goal is to give my students a good marching foundation. Marching season is here and we need to work more," he says. "The band is getting more used to me and my methods this year and I think that will show up in our marching."

"Most of these kids haven't had the marching experience they need to make up a first rate band,"

Veteran describes horrors of war

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — As hushed thousands listened, the voice of an anonymous young man describing the horrors of Vietnam poured from loudspeakers across the vast mall of the University of Minnesota.

"I don't think the American people really, really understand war and what's going on," the voice began.

"We went into villages after they dropped napalm, and the human beings were fused together. They were fused like pieces of metal that had been soldered," he said.

"Sometimes you couldn't tell if they were people or animals."

The voice stopped. There was silence.

Finally Sen. George McGovern said, "I guess there is nothing more to say after that except that this is a young man who has spoken the truth and now I think it's up to us to take the next step which is to change the kind of leadership that put the young man in the position out of which he's just come.

"So let's go out and do the job that we need to do and put a new leadership in charge of this country next year."

Some applauded, though most of the predominantly student crowd stood quietly. By newsmen's estimates, 10,000 were there Thursday night.

The voice was on a tape recording McGovern received earlier Thursday when he was interviewed by Jerry Williams of Boston radio station WBZ. Williams told him of the tape, made when the unknown young man phoned his talk show.

McGovern took it with him to Minneapolis, going to the rear of the plane and listening to it.

His eyes moistened, he turned away and looked out the window, then pulled out a handkerchief and dabbed at his face.

At the university, McGovern had finished his main speech, an attack on critics of his proposals to end the Vietnam war, when he was given a bracelet in behalf of a young Jew held in a Moscow jail. It prompted McGovern to return to his criticism of the war and to play the tape for the audience.

"This is a young GI back from Vietnam," the nominee said. He did not mention that the identity of the purported soldier was unknown and that there was no proof of the authenticity of the story.

The voice on the tape talked of devastation from U.S. bombs.

"You go into a village, not even the bugs—you can't find bugs—that's how fantastic and devastating it is. And what bothers me is when you're there you accept it.

"You rationalize it. You condone it.

"You say it's right 'cause they are the enemy and then when you come home you can't believe that you didn't have the courage to open your mouth against that kind of murder—that kind of devastation over people, over animals."

At times, the voice broke.

In Boston, Williams said of the tape, "As far as I am concerned it's legitimate."

Connally makes verbal stab at McGovern

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Stumping for President Nixon, former Texas Gov. John B. Connally has called Democratic candidate George McGovern an "isolationist" who "has no business being President."

Connally told 600 persons attending a $10-a-plate "Democrats for Nixon" luncheon Thursday they would be asked Nov. 7 to "make the most important decision of your lifetime."

In urging Democrats to abandon their party's choice this election, he said, "I don't like to be called a turncoat. But I don't mind if it comes from the McGovern people."

Connally, a Democrat who served as secretary of the treasury under Nixon, quoted the late Democratic presidential nominee Adlai Stevenson as saying "it would be a sad day for the country" if party labels were the only basis for electoral choices.

Democrats should not be ashamed to vote for a Republican candidate for President, he said.

Supreme Court hears school case

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U. S. Supreme Court today has heard arguments in a Texas school case which could affect the way all of the nation's school districts are financed.

The appeal considered Thursday was brought by Texas Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin after a three-judge federal panel had ruled Texas must find ways other than property tax rolls to support its public schools.

All states in the nation except Hawaii finance public education in part or in whole through property tax assessments.

The high court Thursday also took under advisement a case involving Denver schools after a civil rights lawyer said Denver schools promote segregation.

Attorney James M. Nabrit III said "policy decisions" by Denver school officials promote segregation through school attendance boundaries and new school construction.

Nabrit, representing a group of black parents, said that even if the court does not find there was "illegal official action," there is enough evidence of inferior education in black and Hispano schools to require system-wide desegregation.

William K. Ris, arguing in behalf of the school board, said Denver schools presented an educational problem "beyond the competence of the federal judiciary."

In a surprise development in the case, Justice Byron R. White, a Coloradoan, appeared in the court. He had disqualified himself from the case until Thursday, presumably because of a connection to it by his former law firm.

Justices almost never attend hearings when they have disqualified themselves. White's office said he has not decided whether to vote in the Denver case. White asked no questions during the hearing.

His vote could be critical in the case.

Last term, the court departed from its usually unanimous course in a 5-4 decision disapproving the way a rural Virginia school district was splintered. White voted with the majority, and all four Nixon administration appointees comprised the majority.

A 4-4 vote in the Denver case would be a defeat for integrationists and could slow the pace of school desegregation throughout the North.

Ris rejected the idea that racial concentrations in some schools amounted to a constitutional violation.

He said the only evidence that blacks and Hispanos may have received inferior "input" was the fact that teachers with seniority had the opportunity to transfer out of mostly black or Hispano schools.

The three-judge panel at San Antonio, Tex., last year ruled in favor of a suit brought by Demitrio Rodriguez, the father of five children who said they were receiving inferior education because of the poor school district in which they attended schools.

Rodriguez was joined in his suit by 15 other parents of children in San Antonio's Edgewood School District.

Although the California Supreme Court first ruled tax-school financing policies unconstitutional, the Texas case first reached the U.S. Supreme Court.

Arthur Gochman, a San Antonio lawyer, argued in favor of the district court's ruling. He said the current system "locks in" poorer children to an inferior education. Many of these children, he went on, are blacks and Mexican Americans.

Specifically referring to the Edgewood section of San Antonio, Gochman said 99 per cent of the population is Mexican-American and the average per capita income is about $1,000. There, he said, property is taxed at the highest rate in the county and yet the amount raised per pupil is considerably less than in Alamo Heights, a better-off section of the city which has a lower property tax.

Arkansas Outdoors

LITTLE ROCK, Oct. 6—Striped bass get to be big fish and it usually takes a very big one to make news. Not so this time, however. The strippers now in the news are in the three to six inch category.

Recent shoreline seinnings in the Arkansas River below Ozark Lock and Dam near Ozark turned up some strippers in this category and that was precisely what the biologists were hoping to find. Fish this size often indicate that a spawn has taken place and with the striper program that could be a real break.

According to Fisheries Chief Bill Keith this is the second year that seinnings have produced young striped bass from that portion of the Arkansas River, and this year's find is indicative that a spawn has indeed taken place. The seining crews under the direction of biologists Larry Rider and Raymond Martin, netted one yearling striper and six young-of-the-year (spawned this year).

BIG LAKE ARCHERY HUNT WILL NOT BE HELD

MANILA—There will be no special deer season for archers on the Big Lake National Refuge. Although the hunt is listed in the 1972-73 hunting regulations pamphlets it was not approved by the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife. Refuge Manager Bobby Brown said in a letter to Game and Fish Director, Andrew Hulse, "The Bureau did not approve an archery deer hunt for the refuge for this year. Unfortunately, our hunt proposal was not acted on until a few weeks ago. We were unable to advise you before the hunt was published in your 72-73 regulations."

The squirrel and raccoon seasons given for the Big Lake Refuge in the regulations book will be held.

Bail sought for Corona

FAIRFIELD, Calif. (AP) — Juan Corona's defense lawyer says the prosecution in the mass murder case issued "a desperate plea for help" last July in seeking expert criminologists to try to "patch up" evidence against the 38-year-old farm labor contractor.

But, defense lawyer Richard Hawk said Thursday, the prosecutors failed to clean up "the mistakes, errors and omissions by the Sutter County Sheriff's Office" in its investigation of the murder of 25 itinerant farm workers near Yuba City in May and June of 1971.

Hawk also said he was seeking to get Corona freed on bail for the rest of the trial, but he refused to discuss the matter except to deny published reports that bail had been denied.

Nat'l Guard doubles number of blacks

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Last year the National Guard announced a campaign to double the number of blacks in the organization. Surprisingly, Arkansas and several other Southern states were among the few states to achieve the goal.

LT. Col. James B. Usery, the Arkansas National Guard's recruiting and retention officer, said there had never been racial problems in the ANG and the state's good showing in the recruitment of blacks was a result of "just plain hard work and dedication on the part of recruiting officers."

"Also, Arkansas is a relatively sparsely populated state with a lot of small towns and it's much easier for us to go out on a person-to-person basis and explain the mission of guard to potential recruits," Usery said. "We can have a lot more personal contacts."

In June of 1971 there were a total of 77 blacks in the National Guard, according to LT. Bill Lawson, the state Military Department's public information officer. As of Sept. 30 of this year, there were 177 blacks in the Army Guard and 24 in the Air Guard for a total of 201. Total guard strength is 10,311.

Lawson also said there were two black officers in the guard. "For many years we've been in the top 10 states in recruiting and retention," Usery said.

"We have an extensive training program for our recruiting personnel and I think we've really been able to get it across to the blacks that they're welcome in the guard."

Usery added that during the peak of the Vietnam war, most guard units had long waiting lists and it was not possible "to go out and actively recruit blacks." He said that with reduced draft calls, "things have opened up quite a bit and we've recruited a lot of good people, including a number of blacks."

Usery said Guard officials had "gone out seeking the support of black community leaders in helping us find potential black guardsmen."

In addition to increased personal contacts with blacks, the guard has begun using advertising that is directed at blacks.

One pamphlet distributed by the guard pictures a young black man standing beside a new car and another black working on an airplane engine.

The pamphlet says: "Give yourself a chance. The same way Art Frazier did. The same way Tom Raglin did."

The advertisement says that Frazier and Raglin are actual guardsmen. "Art plans to buy a new car with the help of his Army Guard paychecks," the pamphlet says. "Tom got into a good-paying technical career with the help of his Air Guard experience."

Maj. Gen. Thomas M. Phillips, the state's adjutant general, said he believed a factor in the increased recruitment of blacks was the guard's "community relations program."

"We want members of our guard units to be a part of the community in which they live," Phillips said. "I insist that our men participate in community affairs and civic organizations."

"It's not hard to figure out that a man had rather spend his drill weekend involved in some sort of community service project such as building a road or improving his city than sitting in a classroom," Phillips said. "We think we've made the guard into an organization that's a challenge for young men they can use their time on something that's gratifying."

Lucky lady collects clovers

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — "I walk under ladders, let black cats walk in front of me and I'm not scared of Friday the 13th," Mrs. Mildred Henry said. "Nothing bothers me."

Mrs. Henry, a 70-year-old Athens resident, walks without fear because she has 33,564 four-five-and-six-leaf clovers.

The self-proclaimed "clover demon" has been finding clovers for the past 55 years and has been collecting them since 1959. "Sometimes they hunt for me," she said as she surveyed her yard—a well-trimmed combination of grass, weeds and clover.

Mrs. Henry's biggest find came one day quite by accident.

"I dropped a clothespin, and then started finding four-leaves. I found them and found them and found them. I just thought I'd see how many I could find."

Helen Help Us!

Single Male Has Problems Too

Dear Helen:
Having survived a bad marriage and moved into a new area, I was interested in: social dating without obligations, as I enjoy my new freedom. I moved into an apartment complex of single working people and got the shock of my life. Very few women are interested in social dating—they either expect a marriage proposal, or they're against men.

One girl here has decided that, at 26, she is too old for marriage and dates—she turns everybody down. Another locks herself in her room and reads. A third says she does not date because she is overweight—and makes no effort to reduce. A fourth parties every night, comes home smashed, hates herself, and distrusts men.

I was amazed to learn that women often refuse dinner invitations because they assume the man will expect payment in bed—or that someone will think they are seriously involved. One girl told me if you date a fellow over a month, people either have you living with him or announcing your engagement.

I attend church, where I am supposed to meet the right people, but most of the unattached women there are divorced with one to four children and are looking for someone to provide them with a home.

What's happened to social dating, no strings attached? Whatever happened to old-fashioned evening drives, picnics, casual friendship between man and woman?

Perhaps enough of your single readers agree with me so that they will form social dating clubs where the membership is interested in good times without expecting sex or marriage as prime requisites. —FOR PUTTING THE FUN BACK IN DATING IN SACRAMENTO, CALIF.

Read your local paper. It runs a weekly "Strictly For Singles" column which lists dances, outings, clubs, card parties—and it has never once mentioned sex or marriage (though participants aren't required to check their private thoughts at the door).

In most singles clubs, women outnumber men—and many of these gals aren't looking for anything more than a compatible date. Good luck! —H. Dear Helen:

Would you please devote part of a column to "Grandparents — Keep Quiet!"?

I like my in-laws a lot, but they just can't stay out of things when we discipline the kids (or — in their eyes — fail to discipline them enough). I can't say "Shut up!" They're very sensitive, and think they're "helping." But when I give orders to the children, and they chime in with further orders or criticisms, it's like having three bosses, and the kids tune us all out — or else play one against the other. They're good, well-trained youngsters, but by my in-laws' 1930 standards, WE'RE "overpermissive."

Example: They come up with, "Are you going to let Sissy get away with THAT???" (About a minor infraction like leaving her shoes in the kitchen.) This puts us all on the defensive. I must either say "Yes," which lets Sissy think being sloppy is okay, or I must get tougher than necessary, which makes her balky.

Grandma and Grandpa read your good column, so maybe a few words about staying on the sidelines would save me from exploding with words I'll regret later on. —MY TURN TO BE A PARENT, NOT THEIRS Dear MTTBPT:

You said it all in your signature! Grandparents everywhere (and this includes the Bottels when their turn comes): You've at last reached that wonderful non-responsible stage of life where you can be a passenger on the family bus — and hop off any time you wish. For heaven's sake: don't ruin it with backseat driving! —H.

Receives DAR award

An arrangement of spider lilies decorated the luncheon table for the October 11th meeting of the John Cain Chapter, D.A.R., at the Town and Country Restaurant. The Regent, Mrs. Paul Klipsch, and the Chaplain, Mrs. C.B. Voss, led the opening ritual. The Pledge of Allegiance was given followed by The American Creed.

Mrs. Klipsch read the President General's message. Mrs. Donald Spicer reminded the members that October is a meaningful month as within it occurs Columbus Day, Yorktown Day, but most important on October 11 the 82nd anniversary of the founding of the D.A.R. The Founders started with only faith, confidence, and determination. Today, it is one of the largest women's organizations in the world. The membership has grown from 1,000 to nearly 200,000.

Mrs. Klipsch presented Rub gold jewelry with a chamois to brighten.

Debbie Impson as Good Citizen Girl. She talked on American patriotism, stressing respect due the flag, the American soldier, and the citizen's to his country. Debbie's mother, Mrs. N.O. Impson, pinned the Good Citizen's Pin on the recipient. Mrs. Impson's sister, Mrs. Jean Arrondondo of Las Vegas, N.M.

(nee Vivian Ross) received the same award in 1955.

Yearbooks marked places for 13 members. Three guests attended, Mrs. Jerri Pruden, Mrs. N.O. Impson and Debbie Impson. Hostesses were: Mrs. Robert Vandiver, Mrs. O.A. Graves, Mrs. Charles Locke and Mrs. Wilbur Jones.

What about sex during pregnancy?

Dear Dr. Lamb — I'm a married man and my wife is pregnant. I would like to know how long can marital relations be going on (she's in her seventh month). She is worrying over my having affairs with other women and is keeping me home when I would like to go out and have some fun talking with other men. I stay home and drink because of this. Is it normal for women to act this way when pregnant?

Dear Reader—Couples' individual living patterns are so variable that even when the wife isn't pregnant it is difficult to answer your question specifically. Some women are confident in their relationship with their husband and are well adjusted and don't make excessive demands on their husbands' time. They know if their husband is away from home it is because of something he has to do or it is important to him.

As far as marital relations are concerned, most obstetricians feel that this should be avoided during the last month of pregnancy. There is evidence that when the woman reaches a climax that this causes the uterus to start contracting and may precipitate an early labor. If a woman does not reach a climax, then this doesn't occur of course.

When a woman is pregnant things change and things get more complicated. Many women are very happy and secure in their pregnancy and look forward to the baby and may even have a better disposition during their pregnancy than they do other times. But this isn't always the case. Some women fear that pregnancy makes them unattractive or as you express it, are concerned that their husband will be interested in other women while they are pregnant. This is a real psychological threat to a woman and it's understandable that she might be insecure if this is her reaction to her pregnancy. Such a woman usually needs reassurance by her husband sufficient to convince her of his love.

Campaneris reinstated

CINCINNATI (AP) — Bert Campaneris, shortstop for the Oakland A's, was reinstated today for the World Series, baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn announced.

A spokesman for Kuhn said Campaneris would not be able to play for the first seven days of the 1973 American League season but could play in the Series. Campaneris was suspended for the last three games of the AL playoffs after throwing a bat at pitcher Lerin LaGrow of Detroit Sunday after being hit by a pitch.

A spokesman said that while Campaneris was not being fined directly the suspension would cost him approximately $3,000 based on his salary and that the money would be turned over to baseball's treasury.

Campaneris learned of the commissioner's action when newsmen showed him the statement released by Kuhn's office.

He looked over the mimeographed sheet and said, "I'm very happy. It's fair. I'll settle for that."

A spokesman for Kuhn said that a copy of the commissioner's decision had been left with Oakland Manager Dick Williams for delivery to Campaneris Thursday night. However, the shortstop and his manager did not see each other and so Campy was unaware of the decision until he reached the ball park.

"I didn't talk to the commissioner," said Campaneris. "I was worried that I wouldn't be able to play here. I'm very happy."

Campaneris said that his ankle was still sore but that he didn't think it would bother him in the Series.

Nobody goes unbeaten

NEW YORK (AP) — Nobody's going unbeaten in the National Football League. Nobody ... including the Miami Dolphins. Sooner or later, somebody'll get 'em.

But, not this week.

San Diego's suddenly-super Chargers should bite the lint in the Orange Bowl as the Dolphins go 5-0 with the toughest part of their schedule behind them.

Elsewhere in the NFL, the hour of decision will come for at least two erstwhile powerhouses, the Minnesota Vikings and Baltimore Colts. Each is 1-3 and another defeat will just about kill playoff hopes.

Game by game, here's the call for Sunday-Monday:

Miami 24, San Diego 10: It looks like a ground war and Miami has a tank in Larry Csonka, a bazooka in Jim Kiick and a rocket in Mercury Morris that gives it the edge. Both defenses are underrated.

Oakland 30, Buffalo 14: The Raiders have their offense untracked and George Blanda shouldn't have to be summoned for heroics.

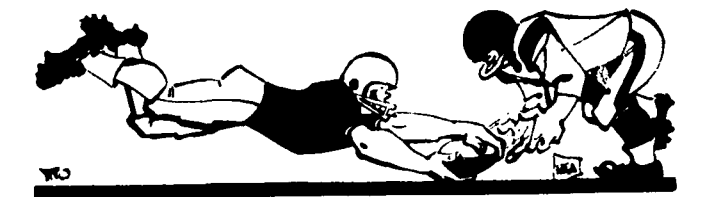

San Francisco 38, New York Giants 17: The Giants have beaten the NFL's two weakest teams, Philadelphia and New Orleans, but their defense can't hold John Brodie and pals.

Green Bay 17, Detroit 13: The Packers' Scott Hunter should have a good battle with Detroit's Greg Landry, but defense should still be the key in the well-matched Monday night TV special.

Atlanta 27, New Orleans 14: The Saints haven't won in four starts and are solid picks to make it five. The Falcons need only to continue improving their offense to be true division contenders.

Cleveland 24, Chicago 14: The Bears are 0-3-1 and seem headed for another winless weekend although running quarterback Bobby Douglass and powerful Cyril Pinder give Chicago at least a chance for an upset.

Kansas City 34, Cincinnati 17: This matchup of division leaders is perhaps the NFL's game of the week. The Bengals offense finally got rolling last week, but the Chiefs provide too tough a barrier.

Stamps host 'Cats

By ALAN FOSTER
Star Sports Writer

Tonight at 7:30 at Stamps the Yellow Jackets will play host to the Hope Bobcats in a non-conference test.

Hope is still in the running for the 7AA title and they will also be out to add one more to their win column.

Stamps is a threat even though they were run off the field against Prescott as they ended up on the short end of a 45-13 score. There is nothing they would like better than to upset the Bobcats.

Even though Hope plays Stamps, their mind would have to be in Malvern as they will face Magnolia in what could be the deciding game in 7AA.

Predictions:

|          |    |
|----------|----|
| Hope     | 28 |
| Stamps   | 6  |
| Magnolia | 14 |
| Malvern  | 10 |

Sooners are favored over Longhorns

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

For the first time in nine years Oklahoma is favored over Texas in the 67th renewal of the Red River Classic in college football Saturday.

The clash between the nationally second-ranked Sooners and the 10th-ranked Longhorns in the Cotton Bowl is one of two games pitting teams in The Associated Press Top Ten against each other. Eighth-ranked Louisiana State and ninth-ranked Auburn battle at Baton Rouge in the other.

These two games between four nationally rated and unbeaten teams spice the weekend fare on collegiate gridirons.

Coach John McKay's unbeaten and top-ranked Southern California Trojans seek their sixth in a row against California.

In other games involving the AP Top Ten, No. 3 Alabama takes on Florida, No. 4 Ohio State faces Illinois, No. 5 Michigan tangles with Michigan State, No. 6 Nebraska battles Missouri and No. 7 Notre Dame engages the Pitt Panthers.

No. 12 Washington opposes No. 17 Stanford and No. 13 Colorado is pitted against No. 18

Independent basketball scoring

Dallas 13, Baltimore 10: Neither team has been outstanding, but the Cowboys keep getting by. Colt luck has been sour and a sudden spree by John Unitas seems Baltimore's only hope for not sitting out the playoffs.

Pittsburgh 21, Houston 14: The Oilers aren't as bad as they looked last Monday night ... nobody is. But, they're not good enough to win just yet with quarterback Dan Pastorini.

Los Angeles 27, Philadelphia 10: The Eagles are well balanced, poor on both offense and defense.

Minnesota 20, Denver 7: Tarkenton wins one and keeps the Vikings alive for a fifth straight division title while the Purple Gang does reasonably well in hemming up Floyd Little and his playmates.

New York Jets 24, New England 17: This one is an air fight between Joe Namath and Jim Plunkett and the Broadway one usually gets the best of such things.

Washington 35, St. Louis 24: Sonny Jurgensen is back and Gary Cuozzo has pumped offensive life into the Cardinals, making this one of the better shows of the weekend.

GORDON IS DRAFT CHOICE

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Bears labelled "unfair" the decision of National Football League Commissioner Pete Rozelle when they learned Thursday that Dick Gordon would go to the Los Angeles Rams for a 1974 draft choice.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The "new" look is in at Baylor.

New coaches, new enthusiasm and a new habit—winning.

"They're playing very conservatively with the idea of not making any mistakes," said Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles.

"They're going to make you beat them if you can."

So far, Missouri and Miami have tried to beat the Bears and failed. Baylor lost its season opener 24-14 to Georgia and the Bears' 2-1 record is the first time they've been above .500 since 1963.

Broyles' 20th-ranked Razorbacks meet Baylor, under first-year coach Grant Teaff, Saturday at Fayetteville.

One of the first things Teaff did at Waco was to wipe "everybody's slate clean."

"I didn't look at a single film," he said. "I didn't want any opinions tainted by something that happened in the past."

Broyles says he is expecting a dogfight Saturday.

"Winning their last two ball games has given them a lot of momentum and this will be their conference opener," Broyles said.

The enthusiasm of the players has spread to the Bears' Sports Information Director Don Oliver.

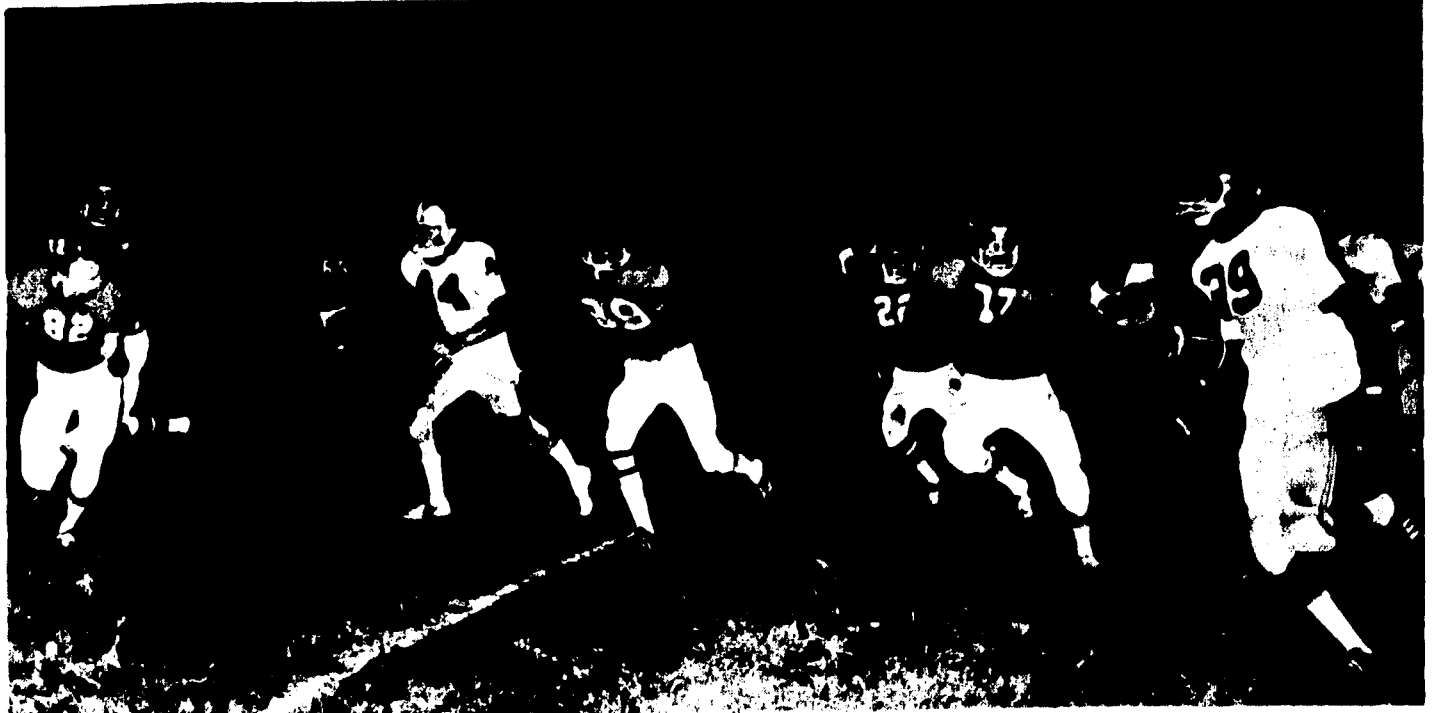

"Everybody's class ring is coming out of the drawer," he said.

Broyles is quick to point out that Baylor has not allowed a touchdown in its last two outings. Missouri fell to the Bears 27-0 and Miami went down 10-3.

"That shows their defense is playing well and that the offense is not making mistakes that get you beat," Broyles said.

For instance, Baylor quarterback Neal Jeffrey has completed 36 of 57 passes without an interception.

"They run right at you, play a ball-control passing game, get outside with the options,

Bobkittens win again

By RICKY FAWCETT
Star Sports Writer

For the fifth straight week, the Hope Bobkittens have brought home victory. Last night's victim was Nashville, 20-6. That win made the Bobkittens' season record, 5 wins and 1 loss.

Elvin Davis led the Hope charge with two touchdowns and three interceptions.

The game opened with Hope taking the kickoff. The Kittens could do nothing and punted. Nashville then drove 80 yards in 8 plays with Leo Hughes scoring on a pass from Paul Lockhart. The conversion missed and Nashville led 6-0 early in the game.

Hope opened their scoring late in the half. Elvin Davis caught a seven yard touchdown pass to cap a 72-yard drive. The two point conversion was short and the score was 6-6 at halftime.

Hope took the lead with 34 seconds left in the third quarter. Elvin Davis caught another touchdown pass, this time from 55 yards out to give Hope a 12-6 advantage.

With 5:03 left in the game, Davis intercepted a pass and returned it to the Nashville 6. Three plays later Jimmy Williams caught a Mark Harris toss for the score. On the end around play, Williams scored the two point conversion that brought the final score to 20-6.

Next week Hope plays Magnolia in the final home game of the year.

Blue just wanted to win

By PIET BENNETT
Associated Press Writer

DETROIT (AP) — "Just another ball game" for Vida Blue has costed the Oakland Athletics into the World Series.

"I got lucky," the 23-year-old told a well wisher as he sat upon a stool in a corner of the A's raucous locker room after preserving Thursday's 2-1 victory over Detroit in the final game of the American League playoffs.

Blue's latest effort was four scoreless innings as he scattered three Detroit singles after replacing John "Blue Moon" Odom in the top of the sixth inning.

The meant Blue, who didn't start a playoff game, had turned in 5 1-3 scoreless innings as a reliever, allowed five hits while striking out five and walking only one batter.

"I wanted to win like I always do," Blue said of Thursday's game.

Then, he concentrated on his unhappiness. Blue claimed Wednesday that A's owner Charlie Finley, in an attempt to hurt him at contract time, had ordered Manager Dick Williams not to start the 1971 Cy Young Award winner and Most Valuable Player in the American League.

Williams denied any knowledge of such instructions but Blue, who slumped to a 6-10 mark this year after winning 24 games in 1971, didn't start in the playoffs.

"But me not starting isn't my complaint," Blue said as the champagne of celebration spilled in his hair. "It's not being told. Nobody has come to me. They kept away from me like it was a cardinal sin to tell me."

"If Jim (Hunter, who started the fourth game after Williams said earlier he might use Blue) was going to start and not me, I'm not going to shoot, kill or kick somebody. I just wanted to be told."

"I'm no superhero. I'm no superhuman. I'm like everyone else on this club and like to play," Blue insisted.

Williams exulted that Blue "showed me something today. Our man Blue will pitch in the series."

But Blue played down his performance saying, "It was just another ball game. We still have seven more ball games. I'm not really excited ... there have been other days like today."

Blue came on Thursday when Odom became nauseated. Odom said, he was "very, very nervous ... I was sick to my stomach. I couldn't catch my breath." Williams said Odom had been ill for three days.

Odom sat at the rear of the clubhouse and sobbed as the A's celebrated. Blue hugged him while teammates clustered protectively about the pitchers.

Williams refused to be drawn into Blue's dispute with Finley saying, "Everything I've asked him to do, he has done and done well. His contract dispute is between him and Mr. Finley."

U.S. in lead for Davis Cup

BUCHAREST (AP) — Stan Smith, cool and consistent, beat Ilie Nastase 11-9, 6-2, 6-3 today and gave the United States a 1-0 lead over Romania in the best-of-five match final of the Davis Cup tennis competition.

"I just can't believe it," Smith said after winning the important opening match against the Romanian ace who is the reigning U.S. Open champion. "I'm exhausted, but I could not be happier than I am. I just can't believe it."

In the second singles match, Tom Gorman of Seattle won the first two sets 6-4, 6-2, but Ion Tiriac took the third set 6-4.

A doubles will be played Saturday and two more singles Sunday.

Marching to the tune of the director

he said. "We're practicing every day trying to get ready for the regional marching contest here the latter part of this month."

"Of course I do get good co-operation from the school administration and other authorities. They have helped provide money for equipment and other things a band needs. They are the ones that make some of our trips out of town possible. I'm really grateful for their help."

Hope's band isn't concerned only with half-time performances at football games and marching contests. Other activities include marching in parades and presenting at least two concerts each school year.

And who ever heard of a pep rally without the music of the band and the performances by the majorettes?

Top left: "Hup two, three, four. . ." Wells marks the count time as his band marches by.

Top: An angry scowl from Wells doesn't seem to bother at least one of his band members.

Center: Wells inspects the rank and file while listening to one of the numbers to be played at half-time during a football game.

Below: Four "portraits" of Wells reveal the intensesness he exhibits at each performance by his band.

By Oswald & James Jacoby

The late Charles Lockett of St. Louis was one of the great players of the west in the 30s and 40s. His first appearance in the east occurred in 1934 when the late Ely Culbertson brought teams from over the country to New York to play in his Grand National championship.

Matches were at total points and Charley, sitting South, was playing against a couple of eastern experts.

Charley wanted to play a slam after his partner's raise to four hearts. He also saw little chance that he would get to play it. Those easterners weren't vulnerable and held the spades.

Charley thought some more and finally decided to charge them the limit if they wanted to defend. He jumped right to seven hearts.

West thought and thought and then thought a little more. Finally the pressure was too much. He sacrificed at seven spades.

The loss was only 700 points, four tricks.

The swing turned out to be considerable. At the other table South just went to five hearts. West and North passed and East bid five spades. South went to six hearts and this time East and West passed.

South was just where he wanted to be but six hearts didn't quite make. South had to lose a spade and a club.

(NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.)

CHARD
The bidding has been:
West North East South
Pass 1 ♠ Pass 1 ♠

You, South, hold:

What do you bid now?
A—Pass. Your partner has placed the contract.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Instead of bidding six no-trump your partner has bid four hearts over your three no-trump. What do you do now?

Planning

Most of us understand the importance of good materials, proper location of heating units and well arranged rooms, when we are to build a house. But a life? Doesn't that just plan itself? Is not a man's life determined in the stars? Is he not the victim of fate? Or do we have something to say about it? The poet challenged himself, "Build thee more stately mansions, O my soul." Am I in some measure the "master of my fate"? To ask such questions is to answer them. Our inquiry proves our sense of freedom and our sense of responsibility. Then, how early should I start my plans? The answer is now! Of course, we should plan for today, tomorrow and for eternity. We must determine what to aim for. Whether we are young or old, with the help of the church and God, we may live forever.

You In The Church The Church In You

— form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.

THE CHURCHES AND SYNAGOGUES OF THIS COMMUNITY ARE THE ONLY INSTITUTIONS WHICH HAVE AS THEIR MAIN FUNCTION THE TRANSFORMING OF HUMAN LIVES. THEY ARE THE SIGN BOARDS POINTING THE WAY TO GOD.

Sponsors of these messages urge faithful church support. Through these pages the appeal is for men to stand up and be counted . . . to combat communism on all fronts . . . to be faithful to God.

OUR PASTORS AND RABBIS ARE GOD'S SERVANTS WHO CALL THE SIGNALS AGAINST THE ORGANIZED FORCES OF EVIL. THEY INVITE YOU TO ENLIST ON THE SIDE FOR GOD . . . TO ATTEND CHURCH OR SYNAGOGUE.

For The STRENGTH of YOUR LIFE WORSHIP in CHURCH this WEEK

Methodist Kindergarten Makes Field Trip

The children of Methodist Kindergarten made a field trip on Wednesday, October 4, to the Hope Fire Station. This was a replication of all the local news printed in this newspaper, as well as all AP news dispatches. The firemen very graciously gave the group a guided tour of their living quarters and a demonstration of procedure when the fire alarm sounds in the middle of the night. The children especially enjoyed being allowed to climb on the big fire trucks. Parents who assisted in transporting and caring for the children were: Mrs. Jimmie Williams, Mrs. Bruce Duke, Mrs. Jerry Chambliss, and Mr. Bennett Wood.

Saenger-Sun., Mon., Tues.

OPPOSING TEAMS—Gene Hackman, a crime syndicate leader, and Lee Marvin, an opposing gangland "enforcer," exchange a few tense words in Cinema Center Films' "PRIME CUT," a hard-hitting action drama about gangland rivalry and violence in America today. The National General Pictures release also stars Lee Marvin and was directed by Michael Ritchie from a screenplay by Robert Dillon.
